1. Invitation

Turkish Chess Federation invites all European Chess Federations members of ECU to participate in the 33rd European Club Cup and the 22nd European Club Cup for Women. The events will be held in Antalya, Turkey. The dates are 7th October (arrival and opening) to 15th October 2017 (departure).

2. Participation

The valid regulations to be followed for the European Club Cup are the “ECU Tournament Rules”. For the European Women’s Club Cup 2017, the ECU Board waives a number of restrictions.

See <http://www.europechess.org/regulations/tournament-regulations/european-club-cup-and-european-club-cup-for-women/f-1-participation/> for the full regulations.

Each European federation is allowed to take part in this competition. According to the regulations, participation is open to:

- Alkaloid Skopje, FYR of Macedonia, the current cup holder in the open competition.
- Three (3) clubs per federation in which a national team championship is organized or two (2) Clubs per federation in which no national team championship is organized.
- A fourth club is allowed to that federation(s) in which a national team championship is organized, provided that at least 10 teams, 20 grandmasters and/or players with a FIDE rating over 2600 have participated in the most recent national team championship.
- One additional club (only in the open competition) for the European federations, which are ranked in the first five places of the Federation ranking list. These federations are: Azerbaijan, Czech Republic, Russia, Israel and Italy.
- Any additional request for participation should be examined by the ECU Board
- In the Women competition all Clubs, members of ECU Federations, are allowed to participate. Clubs shall be registered only through the National Chess Federations.

3 ECU Fees

- ☐ In accordance with ECU regulations, each federation should pay an entry fee of 300 Euros per participating club of the open competition and 200 Euros per participating club of the women competition, to the ECU bank account.
- ☐ According to ECU regulations (article B.9.5.1), the entry fee to ECU shall be paid by the federations before or at the start of the competition to the ECU Bank account. If the entry fee is not paid by the end of round 2, the related teams will not be paired in subsequent rounds.
- ☐ If a participating club wants to include a player in the open competition who does not fulfil the requirements of the ECU Tournament Regulations, Article F.1.2, the club has to pay an amount to ECU according to the player's FIDE classical rating (rating list of July 2017):

Rating 2600 and more	2500 EURO
Rating 2500 – 2599	1500 EURO
Rating 2400 – 2499	1000 EURO
Rating 2300 – 2399	500 EURO
Rating 2200 – 2299	250 EURO
Rating 2199 and below	free

For the European Club Cup for Women this fee is waived for all the ECU Chess Federations where a National Team women Championship is organised.

For clubs which play in an ECU Chess Federation in which no national team championship is organised for foreigner players the club has to pay an amount to ECU of 500 euros per women player over 2300 FIDE rating.

These fees must be paid to the ECU bank account before the start of the event.

See also article 12 – Additional Competition Rules.

- ☐ The ECU account is as follows:

Bank: Credit Suisse, Postfach 357, CH - 6301 Zug

4 Application, Registration

- ② Every federation that intends to participate, with one or more clubs, must inform the Organizing Committee before August 15, 2017 of its acceptance of the invitation, specifying also the exact number of its clubs participating. A copy should be sent to the Tournament Director Mr. Petr Pisk, e-mail: petr.pisk@centrum.cz
- ② Afterwards, entry forms must be completed and returned to the Tournament Office, email: clubcup2017@tsf.org.tr, no later than 01 September 2017, by fax or mail stamped by the Federation or by official email. The date of 01 September 2017 is the registration deadline. In the entry form, the basic team composition must be included.
- ② The complete registration form must include surname/s, first name/s, ID number, FIDE rating and title, as well as passport number of each player. It must also include the name and telephone / e-mail / fax number of the Chief of Delegation, as well as of the person in charge of the Club. The Organizing Committee will contact each of the Clubs to confirm registration and booking.
- ② Copies of the registration forms should at the same time be sent to the Tournament Director as well.
- ② All entry forms have to be put forward by the respective federation; entries not approved by the federation will not be accepted.
- ② A registration fee of 100 Euros for each participant and accompanying person will be charged; this includes accreditation, badges, two-way transfer from Antalya airport to the official hotels & venue, coffee, tea and water in the playing venue, and administrative costs of accommodation booking. Teams will not be paired until all their registration details and payments have been fulfilled.
- ② Any other person (neither player nor captain) who wants to be transferred from the airport to the hotels and/or wants help finding accommodation will also have to pay the registration fee of 100 Euros.

In order to avoid the problem of last-minute team changes that are not in accordance with the ECU Club Cup Tournament Rules, each federation has to send a copy of the club list(s), as entered for the respective national team competition, to the Tournament Director, Mr. Petr Pisk.

Transfer from Antalya Airport to the official hotels & venue will be organized by the Organizing Committee. These transport services will be available on 07 October (arrival) and on 15 October (departure). If the Organizing Committee is able, it will accept special requests from clubs regarding transfer dates. Additionally for the official day of arrival and departure Turkish Chess Federation will provide liaison support in the Istanbul airport for the clubs travelling to Antalya through Istanbul. Avantgarde Hotel is location 45 minutes away from Antalya Airport.

6 Lodging and Meals

The Organizing Committee will offer accommodation and meals for all players and accompanying persons. Please, see article 16 Official Hotel.

All clubs representing "Small Nations" federations will have % 20 discounts for accommodation (standard room price)

12 Additional Competition Rules

- ❑ The default time is 15 minutes.
- ❑ Analysis is not allowed in the playing hall.
- ❑ During the game the players are not allowed to go to the analysis room or to the press centre.
- ❑ Flash photography may be used only in the first ten (10) minutes of the playing session.
- ❑ Only the players and arbiters shall be allowed in the actual playing area, except with the express permission of the Chief Arbiter.
- ❑ Players are not allowed to enter the closed area of the top boards if they don't play there themselves.
- ❑ As long as the game is in progress, a player may talk only to an arbiter or with his opponent, as permitted by the Laws of Chess.
- ❑ Regarding foreigners, ECU Tournament Regulations F.1.2 will be followed strictly:
 - The teams shall be composed of six (6) players and two (2) reserves all of whom must be members of the club and were entitled to play for the club in the national team championship of the federation which was organized within one year before the start of the current European Club Cup. However, players who are foreigners to the federation in which the national team championship is organized, must have played at least two games in this championship. Foreigners are defined as those which are either belonging to another federation in the FIDE Rating List valid at the start of the national team championship or have a permanent residence outside the federation in which this national team championship is organized.
 - If a participating club wants to include a player who does not fulfil the requirements of article F.1.2 the club has to pay an amount to ECU according to the player's FIDE classical rating on the July 2017 rating list (see article 3 – ECU Fees). These players have to be announced to the Tournament Director before the deadline for nomination of teams, and the extra fee has to be paid to ECU bank account before the start of the competition. In the open competition, no more than two players may be replaced.
 - Players who are considered as foreigners according to F.1.2, and who have been playing at least three times for the same club in previous European Club Cup competitions, are exempted from the obligation to play at least two games in the championship of the federation for this club.

- For the women competition the teams shall be composed for four (4) players and (1) reserve.
- Attention is drawn to the fact that this competition is offering the possibility to achieve GM- or IM-norms based on 7 games.
- No teams of federations that are in financial arrears with respect to the European Chess Union will be allowed to enter the competition
- The ECU Rule related to dress code - Chapter B Article 13 - will be applied at this competition
- It is assumed that all players have read the Tournament Regulations and accept to conform to them.
- The English text of these Tournament Regulations is the authentic version.
